The Grand Mistress Speaks

1000 RUNS! What an achievement for a Harriets club and I am very proud to be Grand Mistress at this time. I would like to extend to you all a very hearty welcome, so glad you could come join us on this auspicious occasion, so lets enjoy, have a great evening, one we won't forget for at least another 1000 runs.

We can boast members like Kamala, Mary Jane, Liz, Kim and Doris who have been hashing since year one, so obviously the club has been doing something right.

Since 1973 many faces have come and gone and we have gained a reputation of being open and friendly, with that bit of spice provided by our rascal Harriets (you know who they are).

Wednesday evening to me and I am sure to most is sacred, nothing else happens on that evening, a total commitment to Hash.

On On to the next 1000.

Eileen 'Hotpants' Davies

Dear Eileen

As Founder and first Grand Mistress of the Singapore Hash House Harriets I was once again pleased to have news of the continued success of the Harriets, particularly bearing in mind the early days when the Monday night Hash (mainly John O'Rourke) was extremely anti women running. It's hard to believe that you've reached 1,000 runs. Several years ago I wrote the history of the beginnings of the Singapore Harriets, which I sent to Debbie Tan, but I have no idea whether it was ever received, let alone went to press. For what it's worth I enclose a copy.

Unfortunately I cannot attend the celebrations, unless you'd like to have a whip round for the ticket and at the same time arrange for a stand-in to teach my Word Processing students!!

Out of interest I am still Hashing, now with Surrey H3, and consequently next year I will have hashed for 20 years, god knows how many runs that adds up to.

So ON ON and all the best for the next 1,000 runs, and I hope that you continue to maintain the tradition of only Harriets as Officials.

I would appreciate a copy of the Magazine when its printed.

Yours in Hashing

Caryl Gurney

The First 100

"What is a Hash House Harrier" ? Well, let's quote a "Hash Widow's" point of view:

"The whole point of the Hash, so I am told, is to KEEP FIT. Yet I fail to see how chasing paper for miles and miles, crossing ditches (some rather smelly, to put it mildly, judging from the stench from the wash house the next morning), being caught up in hanging vines, bitten by creepy crawlies, and trying their damndest to come in first whilst denying that it isn't a race!! and thereafter guzzling beer and nosh indefinitely, seems to me to be farcical as they are only putting back on what they may have lost thrashing through the undergrowth. Mad, I say Madd!! But my husband keeps going and enjoying it, and being the perfect wife I let him, never complaining, never nagging, never even say NO, just "where the hell have you been till this hour" ?

Having been such a Widow for several years, I was intrigued to discover the fascination for myself (if you can't beat them join them). Having decided thus I then had to find girls with the same views as myself. This was not as easy as I'd thought. Upon announcing my intention at a large coffee morning it produced screams of laughter. I contacted the Hash House Harriers and was told that a run could be arranged "to see what the reaction would be". No doubt with the thought in mind that it would put them off for life.

This was in October 1973 and was held at Dover Road. The total turn out, after much 'phoning, persuading and bribing was approximately 12 girls, the majority of whom came from Changi (and as a matter of interest have never been seen again, must have been off paper). From what I can remember the run never seemed to end and I was convinced my legs would remain like lumps of lead for evermore.

Run No. 2 was held the following week and was so memorable that nobody can even recall where it was.

Run No. 3 was along Jurong Road in which the scribe had her first lesson in laying a run, not that I remember it at all. The main aim seemed to be to confuse the runners and hares alike!!

Numbers fluctuated over the weeks and it took a lot of patience to sit by the 'phone each week to bully girls into coming, as it still seemed a huge joke to them!!

In January 1974 we went to print, just a few lines in the Men's Hash notice, which made a tremendous difference to numbers as now Hash wives were learning about us, instead of just reading the jokes!! April 1974 found the "Ladies Hash", as we called ourselves, with a notice of our own.

First Hash Trash was on the 51st Run; to quote:

The dogs were bastards but we didn't care,
We of the Women's Hash!
The hills and roads we thought were well above par,
We of the Women's Hash!
The men of course were well above Ma,
We of the Women's Hash!
The birds of the Baltic States retired to the bar,
After setting a course that was enjoyed by Pa,
Say we of the Women's Hash.

and a "Women's Hash" song:

We run through the briars and we run through the brambles,
We run through the bushes that Hashmen wouldn't bore,
The hares run so fast the hounds couldn't catch them,
All the way to Johore from the Port of Singapore,
We run through the shiggy and we run through the mud,
While men do the checking, the women chew the cud.

On ons have been a regular feature, not to be outdone by the men, with Harriets organizing nosh-ups of Shepherds Pie, Curries, Stews and Chinese makan.

So here's to good Hashing for the next 100, and may it be as successful as the first.

ON ON Beyond

After 100 runs the girls really had hashing down pat, so they decided it was time to have a real Hash Bash. Once again, under the guidance of their Grand Mistress Caryl Gurney, co-hares Heather Scott and yes a Harrier (male version) John Sheridan, banded together and organised a celebration run from Track 14 Jurong Road, sound familiar. History shows that it was actually a re-run of run number 3, way back in 1973. 120 hashers took part and a poolside On-On was held at the Tanglin Club, (first and only time by the way). The beer truck was late that night - we can relate to that even today in 1992 and would you believe that nosh was $10 a head !!

Run 111 was held on Dec 29th 1975 at Hindehede Drive, hared by Shirley Morunga and Peta Noad.

There was mention of skinny dipping in the pool of the Swiss Club on run 150, hared by Shirley Morunga. 150 hashers took part in that one.

Jacki Anda was Grand Mistress for the 200th. Not a lot of info but still, 170 hashers took part.

Run 222 was held Thursday Feb 9th 1978, hared by Mary Beatty at the end of Pierce Road. (Moved to Thursday because of Chinese New Year)

Jacki hung in there for another year and this time they really went to town. For run 250, 270 hashers set off from Marsiling Road and then On-On to the Swiss Club, no mention of skinny dipping that year. Sandra and Richard Duffy were hares, nosh was still only $10 per head.

1979 saw Inger Bloom as Grand Mistress and Jln Ulu Sembawang was the 300th runsite with 300 hashers gathering to help celebrate. The Hares were Mirja & Kauko Savolainen and On-On at the Sembawang Sports Club to celebrate.

Run 333 was Wednesday 23rd Jan 1980, hared by Christina Ander at Kent Ridge Road and On-On to Royal Singapore Yacht Club.

1980 already and 350 runs up their belt, nothing will stop the Harriets now - 400 hashers proved that. Of course there were a lot of visitors from K.L., J.B. and others, too many to mention! Sune and Inger were the hares and they decided to run from Chye Kay Road (somewhere off Sembawang Road), which by the way does not exist anymore. The On-On was at, yes, Admiralty House - we must have behaved because they are letting us back.

A familiar name to most of us, Lynn Higgins - the 400th run was under Lynn's rule and the popular Marsiling Rise was the venue. On-On to Sembawang Sports Club, they obviously enjoyed the Harriets, still only $10 per head and that was for 336 hashers. Hares were Kurt, Murray, Anna & Alastair (that male influence again).

Run 444 was a Saturday event, 6th March 1982, hared by Sally & Alan Barnes. On-On at the Swiss Club poolside.

Hope I'm not boring you, we've still a few years to go !!!

Run 450 saw Anna Cooke as Grand Mistress. Maybe the girls were slowing down a wee bit, this particular celebration run took place on a Wednesday evening and not Saturday. Never the less still a good one by the sound of things. The On-On was at the Dutch Club and hares were Lesley Chisholm and Paul Compton.

500 and half way. Anna Cooke still hanging in as Grand Mistress. 437 hashers gathered on Saturday 26th March 1983 for this one, gathering at the Telerec Club, hared by Mike & Julie Croft, Charlene and Wendy. On site Curry, what else ?

Back to Wednesday for the 550th. Celebrated at the British High Commission, Grand Mistress Andra Leo must have had some influence with the upper crust !! This was the first bus run recorded so far. Hared by Vanessa Stuart and Dave Banks.

Run 555 was held on April 11th 1984 out at the East Coast Parkway, hared by Debbie Tan, Anna Cooke, Bruce Barnes & John Massey, On-On was on site.

In between all these celebration runs would you believe the Monday Hash laid a joint run with the Ladies ! This took place on Thursday 26th December 1985.

Run 600 took us out to the Zoo. Saturday of course and the On-On was on site. Three runs were organised for this celebration. Numbers weren't recorded unfortunately. Maybe the hares could remember. Elizabeth & John O'Rourke (yes that's John O'Rourke from Monday nights), Yen Lim & Joe Hulme, Margaret Beaman and Bo Mewen or maybe Grand Mistress Andra Leo.

February 1986, run 650 took us out to Ponggol, hared by Kay Chapman and John Wardale, Andra was still Grand Mistress. I believe Chili Crab was the speciality then as it is now.

Run 666 held on May 31st 1986, was a real blast. 301 hashers rolled up to Joe Cashin's house to celebrate this one, Hared by Tim Hall. Joe's place is still a popular run site.

The numbers are decreasing slightly, only 180 hashers celebrated the 700th run at Patterson Road, hared by Margaret Beaman and Manuela Tame, Anne Retnam and Mary Cox. Inflation hit that year, On-On was $15 per head. Margaret Beaman was Grand Mistress.

Just for a little bit of extra info, run 717 was the 1st Full Moon Live Hare Run, hared by Jenny Moon, Lynn Higgins and Scott Summer. On-On at the Civil Service Club. Thanks to a particular male hasher from Lion City/Seletar, the Civil Service Club is now "OFF LIMITS".

Back to the big ones - 750 saw Manuela Tame as our Grand Mouse (as she was affectionately known). Not a lot of info on this one. Anton Dikken hared the run and also hosted the On-On at his residence at Leedon Park.

Run 777 was held on July 6th 1988. Put a Tiger in your tunic, Tiger Brewery Run, what a drag !! St. Trinians put on a big one that evening. How many chances do you get to wear your old school tunics again - who can fit into them more like it !!!

Saturday December 10th 1988 saw Grand Mistress Sian Jones, 25 other Harriets and a small group of visitors celebrate the 800th. Possibly the smallest celebration run held but not the dullest by any means. Sembawang Shipyards was the venue and the hares, Boo, Anna & Alastair Cooke along with Kamala and Tasneem Noorani lead the pack on a somewhat memorable hash run, followed by a full Christmas dinner.

Sian Jones was Grand Mistress again in 1989. The 850 celebration was at the Polo Club - up market at $20 per head.

Run 888 was held on September 5th 1990 and saw us at the British Club with hares Tony Quek & Noreen Barrett.

900 - we're nearly there. Jill Cutchee (O'Brien) as our Grand Mistress and ruled with an iron rod, just like in the classroom of her first-graders (only joking Jill). This particular celebration was live hared by Eileen & Greg Davies at the ever popular spot of Ulu Sembawang, followed by an On-On at the Terror Club - November 7th 1990.

The 950th was a committee laid run, with a bit of difference. Numbers were down on previous years, but it didn't stop us from celebrating in style at the Sembawang Seafood Palace. Eileen Davies was Grand Mistress. October 23rd 1991 - Great T-shirts !

Run 999 was held on September 30th 1992 and put us way out west at Jln Murai. Celebrated in real style, candles, mossie coils, wine, good nosh and hared by the Aussie's - Davies Duo.

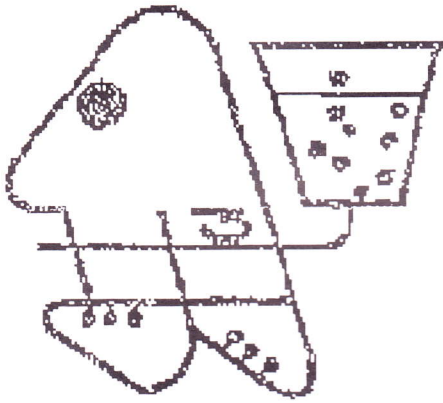

Well here we are at 1000 runs. I feel like I've done them all !!! Eileen is still Grand Mistress and with the help of her diligent committee has put together a celebration extravaganza that you won't forget in a long time. The hares Boo, Kamala, Pigtail & Chris are also helping by setting us some great runs in some of the best hashing ground in Singapore (whats left anyway). Admiralty House has agreed to have us back once again and this time we'll celebrate with an Hawaii Luau.

This is just a brief history yet shows clearly that the Singapore Hash House Harriets, from those early days, have kept with all the traditions of Hashing ... but in a style befitting a LADY (and her GENTLEMAN Guest).

Dear Hot Pants:

We should like to extend to you our warmest congratulations on achieving your 20th anniversary -- a wonderful achievement and a tribute to the dedication and commitment shown by you and your Harriets.

We look forward to celebrating with you on October 3rd.

Keep on running!

SELETAR HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

address for correspondence:

129 Rangoon Road, Singapore 0821, fax 298 1198

To the Singapore Harriets, the Committee and members of Seletar Hash send their greetings. Aloha!

We thank you for the invite to your 1000th run and I am sure that many Seletar harriers will be there.

The last time our clubs had a joint run was on Boxing Day in 1985. A long long time ago. Those of us who ran then and now still hashing with Seletar are bald, long in the tooth, paunchy, and afflicted with arthritis and clogged coronary arteries. Memories of that run are fading or have faded. The invitation to your celebration is an opportunity for the geriatrics to revive memories. It is also an opportunity for us to parade our young studs, and let the new A-Team show their prowess at running and the boat race.

Seletar Hash will be having its 666th run and Halloween party a few weeks after your celebration, and we look forward to your participation at our celebration.

On-on to the thousandth run!
On-on-on to the Aloha party!

On-on to Seletar's 666th run!
On-on-on to the Halloween party!

Lion City Hash House Harriers

P.O. BOX 473 ORCHARD ROAD P.O. SINGAPORE 9123

The youngest Hash in Singapore would like to congratulate the Singapore Hash House Harriets on reaching their 1,000 run. That's quite a milestone and certainly makes Lion City feel young!

One thousand of anything would certainly rank as a significant achievement. In the case of a hash it must represent vast quantities of beer, paper, sprained ankles, flour, false trails, lost hashers, enraged dogs and confused on-lookers. It also represents considerable support on the part of the members, the hard work and dedication of successive Ms-managements and of course a great deal of fun in organizing what has been described as a cross between the National Explorers Club, Animal House and a serious runner's worst nightmare on a weekly basis.

So, congratulations Singapore Hash House Harriets and On On to the next thousand.

After A Lion City On-On ...

"What's all this On-On business?"

"She's never been the same since that run at Seletar Reservoir."

"Is this where the GM of the Wednesday Hash lives?"

"So what did happen after your third down-down?"

"It all started with the Harriets' Halloween Run..."

A Halloween Tale

THE RIME OF THE ANCIENT HARRIET

(With apologies to S.T. Coleridge)

by the Black Widow

*It was an Ancient Harriet
And she stoppeth one of three.
"By they long bleached hair and blackened nails -
Now wherefore stoppeth thou me ?*

*"The beer-truck's doors are open wide;
I yearn to quaff an Anchor."
The Harriet grasped him by the throat -
"Shut up and listen - you wanker!"*

*The hashman could not help but hear
The story that she told.
He stood transfixed, with feelings mixed,
As he watched that Harriet old.*

*"Twas back in eighty five," quoth she,
"And I was young and green.
But then - oh God - Dave Whitehead called;
The day was - Halloween!!!!*

*He made me smear myself with muck
And join a hellish crew
Who came by car, all dressed bizarre;
(Chris Bevan, he came too.)*

*We did not have our hash names then,
And I was still a Frankie,
Long years before Black Widow days
- And navies - and hanky-panky.*

*The hashman raised his haunted eyes
And begged for leave to go.
The wild-haired harridan clutched his shorts
And told her tail of woe.*

*"Anchor, Anchor everywhere !
The bottles, they did clink.
Anchor, Anchor everywhere !
As much as I could drink !"*

*That night I was a maid seduced
By prizes - and by beer;
Addicted, yes, from that day hence,
To dressing up each year.*

*The next year came around too soon
For the team that came from Oz.
Dave ( Tin Man) baked, Anna Cook's feet ached - I'll tell you why - because*

*The smart red shoes were far too small,
(She'd gone as Dorothy);
Chris tried to score with his lion's roar,
And the scarecrow - yes - 'twas me !*

In eighty-seven, a Victorian Bevan

*Ran round Changi Point with a torso.
He'd become Sweeney Todd's partner-in-crime -
And nobody knew who I was !!*

*The next two years were prizeless ones
At the Dutch Club and Australian High.
My former glory I longed to regain,
Could I go it alone ? Should I try ?"*

*The hashman was gripped by her tragic account
And he no longer screamed for a beer,
"Tell me more ! What happened the next Halloween ?
It was out on the East Coast, I hear."*

*"My triumph!" the filthy old harridan yelled,
As she thought of that glorious night.
"I fooled them - they had to award me a prize!
I went as a widow - but white!!"*

*The frenzied old Harriet cackled with glee
The triumph! The glory! The power!
But her wrinkled face darkened, her eyes grew dim,
For that was her one finest hour.*

*"So tell me what happened last year, you bitch!
I'm sick of your dull misery!
I know that you got a great prize for Best Witch."
- "Yes, I did - but I just went as me!!"*

*Heavy Breather was named the Best Woman,
Been There got some wine as Best Man.
I didn't dress up, but I still got Best Witch!
Now make of that what you can.*

*The hashman then made a fatal mistake;
He started to giggle, the fart!
The ancient crone raised a pointed, black nail -
And stabbed him right through the heart.*

*( To those who are lovers of poetry
I pray that you not be too cross,
But the name of that reckless young hashman
Was - you've guessed - the late Albert Ross.)*

*Now each Halloween when the icy wind blows
Stay inside, lock up tight, bolt the door!
For the Ancient Harriet still haunts the pack
As she hobbles around Singapore.*

*From shiggy to ulu she wanders
Lamenting the past that is gone
Forever in search of the best fancy dress
And and Anchor that goes On... and On.*

On On !!!!

The Harriets Christmas Party

*One evening last December
As far as I remember
The Ladies Hash
Had their Christmas bash
An event I'll try to dismember:*

*We met at Ponggol winery
Dressed in all our finery
We started to sup
The drinks clogged up
I started to see in binary.*

*Alas there was no respite
On the boat we held on tight
To our hot mulled wine
Our noses did shine
As we sailed off into the night.*

*There was Deep Throat, Deep Purple, Dirty Dick
Mother Mary and Man Friday too
Watermelon was there
And the W. Willie pair
And of course Gypsy, to name but a few.*

*We landed soon on Ubin
To the restaurant we got moving
Only Pinup was slow
His crutch he did show
Amid cries of "Where have U bin?"*

*Hotpants had decorated the place
With streamers, tinsel and lace
Piddles pulled crackers
We asked "Who's this Crackers?"
As we shovelled food in our face.*

*In our party hats we looked great
As we ate and drank and ate
So much fish up for grabs
We all got crabs
But we polished clean our plate.*

*Then came party games weird and diverse
"Pin the tail on the donkey" was first
Or was it a tail?*

*It was certainly male
Titilator sure worked up a thirst.*

*So did Dimples, Kanga and Zzip
The blindfold started to slip
The tail was all wonky
(False Trail can't draw donkeys)
But Hotpants soon got a grip....*

*Next up was our mystery Santa
He was certainly full of the banter
Is it Rabies in there?
No he's over there
Showing Hotpants his Christmas hamper....*

*"And what do you lust after this year?"
Whispered Santa in Titilator's ear
Her reply made him blush
When she stood up his crutch
Was like Pinup's - full of good cheer.*

*Then came dancing and more Christmas capers
We'd to balance on folded-up newspapers
On one leg, up on shoulders
(Tripod's third leg knocked him over)
Bubbles won - she had three people on hers.*

*Till late in the night we made merry
Then at last we made for the ferry
Not before Fruit 'n' Nut
Had showed us her butt
Her cheeks were red as a cherry.*

*So a great night was had by everyone
Even Ad Nauseam said he had fun
Good wine, good cheer
A fine end to the year -
Thanks Harriets, and here's to next year!*

On On

A Roue Remembers

The first thing I did when I came to Singapore in July 1980 was contact "Been There, Done That" who did two things which marked me for life: (1) Introduced me to Linda Khoo; and (2) Introduced me to the Hash. For someone who has always existed in a fog of post-Freudian birth canal; both experiences were traumatic.

The first day I arrived in Singapore, Alan Barnes took me on the Monday Hash, which I remember was mainly along marshy, oily canals in the company of lots of guys talking business. Not for me. On Tuesday, he introduced me to Linda Khoo. On Wednesday, the Ladies Hash -- Pasir Ris before it was turned into a Toy town. My arrival caused a stir -- my jutting jaw? My jutting shoulders? My jutting ....? No, I had been recognized by some former colleague from Germany; I was not destined to be a superstar (e.g. Bruce Hawley, who came, saw and conquered a fair few a little later -- he of the quarry stones, Porsche, and penchant for driving home naked. Steve Gillespie met his wife Elaine on the Ladies Hash, and smashed his car and leg coming back; but I digress).

Hash, ladies style, in 1980, was tough. Men were to be seen and not heard (I couldn't even become a member for 12 months, and the ratio -- or was it the ration? -- was one man to 12 women). It was ruled by a Trio of Holy Terrors -- Sandra Duffy, Lynn Higgins and Sally Barnes. No question of men doing the checks with these three around. They could out-run, out-swear and out-rage any male stupid enough to cross them. Many men cried. Lectures on Hash rules from the back of the Wagon had the flavour of a Nuremburg Rally.

The challenge, when it came, was not from a man, but a woman. Deline Tan, leggy, curvy, honey-skinned, did not fit the mould of the housewife/teacher identikit for the Ladies Hash. Hyper-active social butterfly that she was, she flitted around among the men disturbing their hormones. Competition like this was not to be tolerated, and Kamala was the one to deliver the verdict of the Hash matrons that she was 'not the hash type', and I was asked not to bring her again. Her memory lives on, as her father, Mr Tan, supplies our beer, and her brother often gives progress reports.

Things eased up so much that Elizabeth O'Rourke even brought her husband on the Hash -- he of the "No women and dogs on the Hash" Creed. He tried talking to Mary-Jane Douglas, Doris Lane and Kamala, but he couldn't bread the habits of a lifetime, and used up the rest of his legs in Nepal.

The Ladies Hash has survived competition from other hashes; the IFC; The Windsurfing Club Barbeque; Karaoke and petrol rationing. Even though Kaki Bukit is now in Marina South, Sembawang is shortly to be relocated on Sentosa, and the government are to make six-lane highways through Jalan Ulu Sembawang, Wednesday nights will always be reserved for boozy, sweaty, chatty, friendly flirtation with the female of the species -- real or mythical.

Oh yes, Linda Khoo. The first woman I met in Singapore was good-looking, witty, sophisticated, and the daughter of a billionaire. Holding hands with her, I thought that Singapore was Paradise -- my destiny. And then I thought -- don't rush it -- there's the Ladies Hash tomorrow. I think you know the rest .....

Martin King

Where Are They Now ??

Anna Cooke, Manuela Tame, Andrea Leo, Sian Jones, Anita Ekberg; All beautiful, fiery, 'fiesty', as Woody Allen would have said because he doesn't like them too old. Deline Tan, Nicky Thomas, Sandra Duffy, Annie the teacher of German, who always wore blue shorts and yellow vest, have also departed.

Where are they now? You might well ask. Anna Cooke is selling pegs and artificial flowers outside a synagogue in Glasgow. Graeme Souness once kicked over her basket and got a black eye for his trouble. Manuela Tame is swimming in wine down Adelaide way, trying to keep her very eligible mother under control. Andrea Leo used to be famous for bringing a very classy mobile drinks tray to the Hash, and now she is famous for falling out with SBC newscasters. She was last seen papering the spare room with SIA shares. She also has a chip shop in Copenhagen.

Nicky Thomas went to New Zealand "to bring up her children in a Nuclear Free Zone: and can hardly breathe from sheep farts. Her son is now 8 feet tall and eats 2 bales of Weetabix for breakfast. Annie, a cute little Chinese girl, is a torch-singer in Hamburg. Sandra Duffy just failed to get on the Apollo Moon project, and is now running a transport cafe on the A1 near Middlesbrough. Hae Bok Gallop is not hashing any more but would like to see you all in her Korean Restaurant, where she sings "We'll Gather Lilacs" every night at closing time. 'Allo 'Allo? Sian Jones is a bodyguard for the Chippendales in a Pat Talbot WMC.

And some MEN (Male Members are useful). Tug Wilson is mud-wrestling at Cleethorpes Town Hall. Tom Case is either on the dole in Newcastle or on the booze in Koh Samui. Joe Hulme is under house arrest in Cairnhill. Still a legend in his own lunchtime, he gets out on Monday nights. Mel and Sandy Kuhbender are running "an institution for females" in Louisville, Kentucky. Don Gallop is peeling spuds in a restaurant in Tanjong Pagar. Peter Tame has given up playing Father Christmas, and is now disguised as an anti-terrorist.

OR: How to behave with the poise and decorum befitting a member of the Ladies Hash.

The occasion of our 1000th run would seem to be an appropriate moment to remind ourselves that we are, indeed, ladies and as such we owe it to ourselves to ensure that we embark upon all our activities without compromising our femininity. With this end in view, I present you with a few pointers, which, if adhered to, will enable us to Hash with the maximum of enjoyment and the minimum of impropriety.

Raiment	Items of clothing which reveal any portion of the midriff or vast expanses of thigh are shunned by the decorous Harriet. It should be noted that the sporting of such vulgar apparel will only serve to inflame the passions of itinerant Harriers and naval gentlemen and is regarded as a sign of wanton depravity.
Potation	The reckless consumption of intoxicating beverages should be strenuously avoided as this can lead to a state of inebriation - not a suitable condition for a lady. Such alcoholic liquors should be sipped with restraint. In the unfortunate event of a state of intoxication being attained, the afflicted Harriet should retire from the company. Loud singing, the use of coarse language and dancing on tables are expressly forbidden.
Conversation	When mingling with her fellow hashers, the mannerly Harriet will restrict her discourse to conventional topics of interest. Any Harriet who is discovered to have been discussing the personal lives of her fellow runners will find herself ostracised by the group. It must be remembered that the Hash is not a place for idle tittle-tattle and salacious gossip. Such speculation is the fore-runner of rumour and must be avoided at all costs.
Socialising	The discreet Harriet will behave with courtesy and reserve during all social encounters. Any Harriet seen to be encouraging the attentions of a member of the opposite sex in a manner inappropriate to the conventions of the Hash will leave herself open to ridicule and disdain.
Running	The prudent Harriet will always take pains to ensure that she moves with grace and elegance. Should an obstacle, such as a deep drain or steep slope, be encountered, it is advisable to wait for the advent of a chivalrous Harrier to give assistance, rather than suffer the humiliation of being observed in an ungainly predicament. Remember - a Harriet should always be in front. Should any male member of the pack take up this position, the shrewd Harriet should firmly inform him of his indiscretion and put him in his place.

Ladies, I hope that these hints will enable you all to continue to run on the Hash without jeopardising your position as the fairer sex. Follow them with care, and I am sure that you will find them invaluable, empowering us to maintain the status of our group as the Hash for Ladies.

Jill "Bubbles" O'Brien

The Rules

1. The Female always makes the Rules.
2. The Rules are subject to change at any time without prior notification.
3. No Male can possibly know all the Rules.
4. If the Female suspects the Male knows all the Rules, she must immediately change some of, or all of the Rules.
5. The Female is never wrong.
6. If the Female is wrong, it is because of a flagrant misunderstanding which was a direct result of something the Male said or did.
7. If Rule 6 applies, the Male must apologize immediately for causing the misunderstanding.
8. The Female can change her mind at any point in time.
9. The Male must never change his mind without written consent from the Female.
10. The Female had every right to be angry or upset at any time.
11. The Male must remain calm at all times, unless the Female wants him to be angry or upset.
12. The Female must never let the Male know whether or not she wants him to be angry or upset.
13. Any attempt to document these rules could result in bodily harm.
14. If the Female has PMS, all rules are null and void.

A few words from the Editor

It would not have been possible to produce this magazine without the help of several people, and I would like to thank them for giving up their valuable time.

- Vanessa 'Titilator' Rice for organising the advertising
- Quiche Lorraine for her great work on the collages
- Lesley Henderson for all her typing
- Mary Nix for the Hash ads

And all who contributed articles, photographs and jokes, whether they were used or unused.

Many thanks and On On,

The Centre Page

*The Centre Page,
By Quiche Lorraine.
What a Rage!
"Oh there am I!"
"But where am I?"
I don't know why...
I'm there all the time -
but I didn't make it into the poster."*

*"Don't make such a fuss",
Says teh man we made boss.
But it's alright for him,
he's in it in twin.
Poor Haebok and Don didn't make it at all;
and Sally and Mary are oh so small.*

*Pav's way too big
(well it's OK for him)
but what about Quecky and the Wicked Robinson.*

*Monica Gimre and Janette Rapids Clarke;
Where do they appear on this plaque?
Maria the Norman
and Paul Eggleton;
Peter the Guy and
our Lost Chord, Torsten;
Did they miss out on all this fun?
Well so it seems,
But I know they've run.*

*Film doesn't record memories;
People do.
Film records presence,
but it must be good too.*

*This photo's too small
and this is too dark,
This one's too old;
oh no, oh... Fark !!!*

*Just pin it on your wall and soon you will see
How proud we all are of the SH3*

On-On to 2001
